How to use it:

For wide hair flat iron, we use it to make straight hair, wash hair and blow dry it, then brush your hair smooth and nice, get ready to style.

Then, chose one small section of your hair, clip it via hair flat iron from the roots to tips, and get it down slowly, if the hair is not straight enough, you could repeat above action until you think the straight reached your expectation.

For corn plate and wave plate, we usually use the two plate styling the perm hair. Also, wash, dry and brush your hair nice and smooth is the first step.

Then clip a small section of hair from the roots, wait for a seconds, and then release them, and clip the same section the following position.
